

Dead Ferwar

Dead Fervor is a hard rock band based out of Idaho Falls, Idaho. Formed in late 2017. The band consists of Ryan X, Judge, Porter Harding and Jordan Adams.

Breaking ground in 2017, Dead Fervor melds the straight-forward sound of classic rock with the deep resonance of hard rock and the dynamic fury of heavy metal. Their sound, an influential fusion of haunting vocals, sonic guitar riffs, powerful thundering drums, and relentless bass, is both dynamic and infectious.

Dead Fervor hit the road almost immediately after formation, opening for Dizzy Reed's Hookers and Blow. They quickly grew their following in 2018 and 2019 with shows throughout the West, Southwest and Midwest, and have since become a staple at Montana's Rockin The Rivers Festival each summer.

For their 2021 run, they hit the festival circuit which included a 2 night stand at the Sturgis Motorcycle Rally with Vince Neil, Great White, Queensryche and LA Guns and later in 2021 they were invited to play The Blue Ridge Rock Festival in Danville, VA with legendary bands Anthrax, Rob Zombie and Sevendust.

In 2022 they were again rewarded the opening slot with Dizzy Reed's Hookers and Blow for a string of sold out shows. They were also invited back to play The Blue Ridge Rock Festival in Danville, VA and selected to play Rocklahoma.

Their prophetic new single "Warning" wakes the dead as a heavy intense anthem laden with a compelling mix of rock genres. Appearing at festivals around the nation and touring with notable rock greats, Dead Fervor's promise is an intense and memorable experience to fill the void. Alex Grossi of Quiet Riot calls Dead Fervor "the band not to miss."

Dead Fervor is intent on solidifying their inclusion amongst the prolific bands of yesterday and today. They are currently working on new material. More big things coming in 2023.
